AmeriCorps Member Position Title: AmeriCorps Learning Coordinator
Position Start and End Dates: September 9, 2019 to August 7, 2020
Days and Hours of Service: Monday-Friday 4 hours per day (School Year), 6 hours per day (Summer)
Required number of Hours per Week: School Year- 20 hours, Summer- 30 hours

MEMBER POSITION SUMMARY

The AmeriCorps Great Futures Program aims to provide academic support to youth participants at the Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia, bridging the gap between the resources available to the youth in Philadelphia's impoverished communities versus wealthier surrounding areas. In the neighborhoods Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia serves, youth poverty rates average 53%, which puts our youth at risk for long-term consequences including academic, social and health issues. The public high schools in these neighborhoods have an average on-time graduation rate of 61%, and third grade reading proficiency scores are as low as 14%. Serving youth by providing necessary educational resources will help them stay in school and on track to high school graduation with the ultimate goal of reducing poverty in these communities.

The AmeriCorps Learning Coordinator will assist with the implementation of STEM, Literacy and High-Yield Learning programming with the goal of increasing youth academic performance and engagement. The AmeriCorps Learning Coordinator will also support the mission and vision of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia by establishing positive relationships with Club members, fostering an academically-enriching Club environment, and engaging with community members and volunteers.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS (MAIN MEMBER ACTIVITY AREAS AND DUTIES)

Program Expansion/Enhancement

- Coordinating one of three components of the Project Learn program model: STEM, Literacy Enrichment, or High-Yield Learning.
- Planning and leading daily lessons and activities for Club members that contribute to BGCP's culture of learning.
- Establishing positive, trusting relationships with Club members by modeling positive adult-youth relationships and utilizing effective behavior management techniques.
- Collaborating with fellow AmeriCorps Members and Club staff to create an encouraging, academically-enriching environment for Club members of all ages.
- Gathering, recording and tracking relevant program data related to youth participation, attendance and outcomes and consistently monitoring youth progress towards goals.
- Complete program-related tasks such as general upkeep of program spaces, assisting with Club transition times, and maintaining positive and professional interactions with staff, Club members and their families, and Club visitors.
- Establishing connections with individuals and volunteers in the community and at the Club to enhance Boys & Girls Club programming and Club beautification.
- Participating in all required trainings and community service activities, including but not limited to Member Orientation, AmeriCorps citizenship training, and Boys & Girls Club content-specific and youth development trainings.
- Complying with all AmeriCorps and Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia policies regarding conduct and expectations.
- Complying with Mandated Reporting policies and reporting any suspected Child Abuse or Neglect following the procedures mandated by the State of Pennsylvania.
- Representing AmeriCorps and Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia in a manner that conveys professionalism, confidentiality, courtesy, fairness, personal integrity, and respect for others.
- Respecting confidentiality of Club members, families, staff and fellow AmeriCorps Members.
